Summary

Software engineer with solid experience in test automation and backend development using Python in a distributed microservices environment. Skilled in test automation with Robot Framework and pytest, UI automation with Cypress and CI/CD integration with Jenkins. Proficient with Docker and Kubernetes.

Work Experience

Software Developer - Ericsson, Budapest Nov 2022 - July 2026

- Developed reusable Python-based Robot Framework libraries to extend the test automation framework.
- Created unit tests with pytest, integration/system tests with Robot Framework and UI automation tests with Cypress
- Developed and maintained backend services using Python and Django in microservices architecture
- Debugged and resolved complex test failures across distributed services
- Analysed nightly and regression test results from Jenkins pipelines, performed root-cause analysis to triage failures, and assigned bug tickets to the responsible teams in Jira
- Developed and extended API contract testing using Schemathesis - authored OpenAPI specifications and resolved schema validation failures across services
- Implemented performance tests to validate API response times under load and data pipeline reliability
- Used AI tools(Copilot, Kiro) to create tests, investigate failures and identify test coverage gaps

Software Developer Intern - Nokia, Budapest Oct 2020 - Jan 2022

- Worked in an Agile environment contributing to backend development using Python
- Implemented unit tests with unittest library and integration tests with Robot Framework
- Containerized microservices using Docker
- Developed CI/CD pipelines using GitLab CI and Bash
- Automated build, testing, and deployment processes
- Created and maintained internal documentation
